B. CHANGES AND CANCELLATION BY US

B.1 IF WE CHANGE YOUR ARRANGEMENTS BEFORE THE CAMP COMMENCES

B.1.1 We hope and expect to be able to provide you with all the services we have confirmed to you. However, given the nature of the camps, you and each Participant are expected to be flexible and accommodate the possibility of alternative arrangements having to be made, even at the last minute and without prior notice. Please note that any published outline itineraries are a guide only, do not form a contractual obligation on us and may be subject to change. In the vast majority of cases any changes will be regarded by us as minor changes. However, if we consider them a 'Significant Change' we will endeavour to advise you as soon as reasonably possible. A significant change could include, purely by way of example, a change to a scheduled activity arising as a result of circumstances out of our control.

E. YOUR RESPONSIBILITIES AND THE RESPONSIBILITIES OF PARTICIPANTS

E.1 REGISTRATION FORM FOR PARTICIPANTS

Parents or guardians of each Participant are required to fill in a form for entry onto the camp. A parent or guardian will be required to countersign and confirm that we may act in loco parentis whilst the relevant Participant is at the camp. We reserve the right to cancel any Participant's place on, or require a Participant to leave the camp, even if the camp has already commenced, and without compensation or repayment of any sums paid should any information on the registration form be incorrect.

E.2 SPECIAL REQUESTS

If you have a special request, we will do our best to help, but cannot guarantee it except as set out below. We promise to comply with any special requests which we have specifically agreed to and confirmed in writing. If any additional cost is applicable, it will be invoiced to you prior to the start of the camp.

E.3 HEALTH PRECAUTIONS AND SAFETY

E.3.1 We will provide general advice to you and Participants as to what health precautions are usually required for any activities. Any health information provided by us is provided in good faith but will only be a general overview of any health hazards and requirements for the camps. In the circumstances, any such advice given by us should not be regarded as a substitute for specific and detailed medical advice.

E.3.2 Our camps involve some strenuous activity and it is your responsibility to ensure that each Participant has the necessary level of fitness and health to complete the camp. Each Participant will be required to provide a form with appropriate medical details and full particulars must be given of any previous or existing conditions that may affect a Participant's ability to take part in the camp or relevant activities. Participants will be required to authorise disclosure by us of any such conditions to any medical personnel that we use in connection with the camp. We reserve the right to cancel any Participant's place on or require a Participant to leave the camp, even if the camp has already commenced, and without repayment of any sums paid or other compensation, should any information provided to us in respect of that Participant's medical history or condition be incorrect.

E.3.3 Whilst at the camp all Participants are required to adhere at all times to the advice and instructions given by our staff.

E.3.4 If a Participant falls ill or suffers an injury, or in our opinion is not able to continue with the camp, we reserve the right, following consultation with the relevant parent or guardian, to require each Participant to either leave the camp entirely or for a period, or to not take part in a particular activity at the camp. In such circumstances, the relevant parent or guardian or other responsible adult will be required by us to accompany the relevant Participant at all times, even if the Participant has to return home.

E.4 BEHAVIOUR

E.4.1 We shall endeavour to provide advice to Participants on health, safety and security matters before and whilst at the camp and provide reasonable supervision whilst Participants are undertaking activities and expect all Participants to behave responsibly in relation to their own safety and security and that of others at the camp.

E.4.2 All Participants should be advised that you will be personally liable for any damages suffered to property or by us in the event of any Participant failing to comply with the terms of this clause and that, following consultation with the relevant parent or guardian, we reserve the right in our absolute discretion to require any Participant to leave the camp if that Participant's behaviour falls short of the standards expected by us. In such circumstances the relevant Participant will have to be accompanied home by you or another responsible adult and no compensation of any sort (including the return of any monies paid) shall be payable by us in respect of the relevant Participant and all rights are reserved by us against such Participant and you.
